

Privacy Policy

As the companies of HARTING Technology Group collect and use personal data strictly in accordance with the terms of the German Federal Data Protection Act (Bundesdatenschutzgesetz), we would like to inform you about the nature, scope and purpose of such usage as follows.

Usage of personal data

By giving your consent within your registration to HARTING supplier portal, the following personal data will be collected and used: name, telephone number and e-mail address of the contact persons at your company.

We collect, process and use these personal data only for the purpose of the following transactions:

- participation at biddings
- processing of orders, assignments etc.
- controlling of business processes and quality safety
- performance review
- strategic development of supplier relationship
- risk management
- access control to HARTING supplier portal
- usage of information and communication systems
- within the scope of mandatory legal terms

These data will be deleted within the legal periods of safekeeping.

We keep and proceed technical and organisational safety measures to protect your data from incidental or voluntary manipulation and unauthorised access of third parties. Our safety measures are in accordance with the state of art.

Storage of access data

Every time a user accesses our website, and every time a file is downloaded, data relating to these events are stored anonymously in a log file on our server. All personal references contained in this data are automatically deleted immediately thereafter.

Each data record comprises:

- the page from which the file was requested
- the name of the file
- the date and time of the request
- IP address of the computer from which the request was made
- the volume of data transferred
- the access status (file transferred, file not found, etc.)
- a description of the type of Web browser used

These data are stored anonymously and analyzed exclusively for statistical purposes. No data are passed on to third parties, either for commercial or non-commercial purposes.

Insofar as our website offers the opportunity to enter personal or business data (e-mail addresses, names, addresses), these data are at all times disclosed by the user on an explicitly voluntary basis and solely for the desired purpose. Mandatorily required data are of course identified as such. Your personal data are stored exclusively for your business purposes.

Your data are treated in confidence and will not be passed on to third parties. Nor are your data linked in any way with the access data referred to above.

On request, you will be provided at any time with details of the nature and extent of the data stored with a personal reference to yourself. In addition, in accordance with the law, you have the right to have personal data corrected, blocked or deleted.

Data security

We would like to draw your attention to the fact that even in the present state of the art, the protection of your personal data cannot be comprehensively guaranteed when transferred via the Internet. Third parties may under certain circumstances have the technical ability to penetrate network security without authorization and eavesdrop on communications. Please be aware that transfers of data by e-mail in principle take place without encryption.

Cookies

The HARTING supplier portal does not use cookies.

Right to receive information

You have the right at all times to be informed of data stored with a personal reference to yourself, including the origin and recipients of these data and the purpose for which they are stored, and you have the right at any time to have these data deleted.

Cancellation

If you have given your consent to the use of your data, you may at any time cancel this consent either in writing or electronically.

Cancellation by e-mail: datenschutz@HARTING.com

Cancellation by post: HARTING KGaA, Mr. Laker, Marienwerderstraße 3, 32339 Espelkamp

In the event that you choose to cancel your consent to the storage and processing of your data, HARTING will delete such data, as far as they are no longer necessary to process current transactions.

Validity of this Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to alter or amend this Privacy Policy from time to time. This Policy was last altered on October 11, 2011.
